

This Easter

This Easter we will remember forever more, being in lockdown feeling unsure.

Missing our loved ones has been so tough, not going out of the house, and looking so rough.

Given us time to re-evaluate our life, thinking of our husband and of our wife.

Our children we don't see are hard not to hug, this is the reality of such a horrid bug.

Hoping we cherish the ones we love for sure, not taking a moment for granted anymore!! Covid-19 2020 🙄💔

Karen Sinclair